Mission Statement

The mission of the Coalition of Women in Long Term Care (COWL) is to bring the women's perspective on strategies on long-term care into public policy.

Why We Need You!

- ◆ 97 percent of the caregivers in long term care are female.
- ◆ Women represent 87 percent of the recipients in long term care.

Focus Issues

- ◆ educating the public on the value of the caregiver.
- ◆ taking an active role in policy development to meet the needs of an aging population.
- ◆ taking a proactive stance in the necessity of reasonable and affordable long-term care insurance.

Our History

COWL was formed in 1994 by a group of women who recognized that long-term care is about women – we have a great stake in decisions made by Congress and state legislatures; there was a need to put a face on long-term care issues. Today membership is open to women and men with an interest in women's issues in long-term care.

Membership Benefits

Leadership Mentoring

Promote the involvement in long-term care through formal and informal mentoring.

Professional Networking

Join with other providers and caregivers to form alliances and establish a strong voice for women's issues in long-term health care.

Political Access

Bring a fresh perspective to current issues through greater political involvement on both local, state and national levels. Your involvement in COWL will give you political access and credibility.

Educational Opportunities

Participate in forums on women's health issues, and receive quarterly newsletters on events and activities related to women in long-term health care.
